A DAY OF WEDDINGS.

The Madison Square Presbyterian Church was the scene of a brilliant wedding yesterday afternoon, and uilding was crowded with fashionable people. The occasion had more than common interest, as it was the union of an American girl with a Frenchwho is not altogether a stranger in this city and country. The contracting parties were Miss Blanche Phelps Stebbins, the eldest daughter of James H. Stebbins, and Lucien Paul Vallois, son of Paul Vallois, of Paris and Etretat. The bride has passed her time abroad and is an accomplished lin-The bridegroom's grandfather, Lucien Mail-many years ago lived in this city and was rtners of the well-known firm of Thirron, Mailliard & Co., of which firm Mr. Caylus, the father of Mrs. Adrian Iselin, jr., was also a member.

Just at 3:30 o'clock the strains of the Lohengrin March announced that the bridal party had arrived. The ushers, Stowe Phelps, a consin of the bride, George Dickinson, J. Allen Townsend, Mayhew Bronand after them were the bridesmaids, Miss Stebbins, Downer. They were Parisian costumes of cream-colored silk, mull embroidered, with sprigs of marguerites. Just preceding the bride came little Miss Kitty Hall, the maid of honor. Then came the bride with ber father. Her gown, made after the French fashion, was high at the neck, with a princess train. The material was white Renaissance brocade with drapery of embroidered gauze. A tulle vell, held ce by three, diamond stars, the gift of her its, completely enveloped the costume. The bridal bouquet was of natural orange blossoms, and a cluster of the same was worn in the colffure. The bridecom was at the altar with his best man. Walter Ames Stebbins, brother of the bride. The officiating lergymen were the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Dr. E. N. Hitchcock, who for a number of years was in charge of a church in the Rue de Herri, Paris. The Mendelssohn wedding march was played as the party left the church. The civil marriage which the French law requires took place in Park last summer while the bride's family were there, and then the banns were published, contracts signed and all requirements of the law complied with.

arge reception followed at the Stebbins mansion. No. 20 East Thirty-seventh-st. In this house is one Mr. Stebbins has no less than eight of Meissonier's most celebrated works, and the only full-length pertrait, it is said, which Fortuny ever painted. The ridal party received in the large drawing-room, where most of these paintings are hung. Among the guests present were Vicompte d'Abzac, French Consul to New-York; Prince Eristoff de Gourie, Gottlieb Rucker, whose engagement to Miss Fannie Stebbins the bride's sister, has just been announced; Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, Mrs. Hegeman, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bishop, Miss Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. D. Lanier, Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Lush, Miss Lusk, Dr. and Mrs. Draper, Miss Draper, Professor and Mrs. R. Ogden Doremus, Miss Estelle Poremus, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoadley, James Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Marie, Mrs. Van Auken, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley H. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hamersley, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Evarts, Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Jesup, Mrs. John Sherwood, Dr. and Mrs. do Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, Miss Amy Baker, W. E. D. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stuart Dodge, Mr. and Mrs E. Dodge, Judge and Mrs. Shea, Mrs. Fred Busterfield, and Lieutenant Harlow. The happy couple started early in the evening for a sho In two weeks they will sail for Europe and spend the winter in Algiers. M. Vallois presented many valuable jewels to his bride.

A pretty wedding took place in the Church of the Divine Paternity last evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Emma Maria Hebert was married to Edward Banks The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Eaton officiated The pulpit and surroundings were banked with flowers bride entered the church on her father's arm. were a fine gown of heavy white satin, with a point lace front and garniture of orange blossoms Her veil was of point lace and was held in place with a diamond ornament. The bridesmaids were Mis-Emma Roome, Miss Annie Duncan, Miss Keeler, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lettie Hebert, sister of bride. The best man was Mortimer Osborne the bride. The best man was Mortimer Osborne, and there were six ushers, Archer V. Pancoast, William Gardiner, Theodore H. Banks, E. H. Laing, W. C. Kingsland and Louis A. Zerega. After the ceremony a large reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Hebert, No. 152 West Seventy-third-st. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. Horatio St. John, Mrs. J. F. de Navarro, A. F. de Navarro, General and Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Adams, Colonel and Mrs. William Irwin Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Low.

At the same hour as the above another wedding was in rogress in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, nearly opposite. The contracting parties were Miss Rosamon Floyd Macdonald, daughter of Robert Macdonald, and James Boyd Weir, Jr. The Rev. D. Parker Morgat officiated. The chancel was handsomely decorated with palms and plants, which formed an agreeable surrounding for the bridal party. The bride was in white faile, with tulle veil and diamond ornaments, the bridegroom's gift. Her maid of honor was Miss Estelle Schuyler. The bridesmaids were Miss Annie Weir, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Margie Churchill. Cousin of the bride; Miss Miriam Goelet and Miss Florence Browning. The best man was Ross Weir, the bridegroom's brother, and the ushers were J. N. O. Kline. Noel C. Regers, Charles P. Beckwith and Sunner P. Vicar. A reception followed at "The Dalhousie," in West Fifty-ninth-st.

An attractive home wedding occurred at the home of W. H. Jackson. No. 825 Madison-ave., last evening. The bride was Miss Marianna Jackson, and the bridegroom Robert J. Hunter, of this city. The long-drawing rooms were transformed into a conservatory, and, under an arch of flowers, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. A. E. Kittridge, of the Madison Avenue Reformed Church. The guests present included relatives and intimate friends. The bride was dressed in white corded silk, draped in talle. The bridesmalds were Miss Sarah Jackson and Miss Louisa Jackson, sisters of the bride; Miss Fanny Hunter and Miss Maud Smith.

Miss McElrath, a daughter of Major Thompson ratt McElrath, U. S. A., (resigned), was married of William L. Avery, in the little chapel of St. John out Hamilton, on Wednesday morning. In this made church Major McElrath led to the altar his ride, Miss Florence Ross, a daughter of Colonel oss, more than twenty years ago.

The wedding of Miss Louise Brennan, daughter of Mrs. Owen Brennan, to Henry F. Provost will take place on Wednesday evening, November 7, at No. 156 West Fifteenth-st.

WHY COL. BRICE IS SO HAPPY.

NEVER SO CHIPPER AS WHEN FOLLOWING

gentleman recently coming East on train fell in with McCullough, the builder of the director of Calvin S. Brice in that and other railway

After a little their conversation drifted into polities, and McCullough, though a Democrat, said he thought Harrison would be elected.

His friend expressed some surprise at this opinion oming from McCullough, and said: "I recently saw Brice and he seemed serency confident, indeed cock-sure, that Cleveland would be elected."

"Pshaw," said McCullough, "you can't tell what Cal thinks by what he says. He is never so chipper as when following a hearse."

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 1.—The special convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Ohio was held in St. Paul's Church to-d y, to nominate an assistant to Bishop Bedell, who sill on the Continent. The candidates for the honor were Dr. G. W. Smith, president of Trinity College, the Rev. E. R. Atwell, of Toledo, and the Rev. Mr. Wilberforce, of Pittsfield, Mass. Dr. fmith was unanimously chosen, and the lay delegates confirmed the nomination.

ASTEROID NO. 281 DISCOVERET. Boston, Nov. 1.—A dispatch by cable in the Science Observer Code, received to-day from the European Union of Astronomers, announces the discovery of an steroid (No. 281) of the twelfth magnitude, by Dr. Pallisa, of Vienna. The discovery position is the following: October 31, .5165 Greenwich mean time, right ascension 2 hours, 2 minutes, 46 seconds. Declination north 13 degrees, right ascension 17 minutes, in declination south 1 minute.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1 (Special).—A reception was hold to-night at the Academy of Fine Arts, in honor of Bishop Foss, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now resident in this city. Over 2,000 persons paid their respects to the Bishop and his wife.

PORPOISE LEATHER SHOES.

From The Detroit Free Press.

Everybody knows that porpoise skin makes good shoe-strings-good, at least, so far as durability is concerned. It is not so well known that porpoise leather also makes good shoes and that there is quite a demand for them. A porpoise-leather shoe, if made well in the first place, always fits well, for, while it is very stretchy material, it can never he made to cover more surface, no matter how much it is stretched. What it is extended in one direction it loses in another. This peculiarity makes it very close fitting and at the same time close and pliable to the foot. It is used chiefly for shoes by people anxious to keep their feet to, at it is absolutely impermeable to water. When tt is wet, however, it swells to twice its usual thickness, which temporarily spoils its good looks.

WHAT BOOTH AND BARRETT WILL PLAY. DAZZLING SCENERY AND LAVISH OUTLAY PROM-ISED AT THE FIFTH AVENUE. Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett promise several innovations in Shakespearean productions during their engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, which begins "The Merchant of Venice" will include the original six acts, and the mounting will be on a most elaborate scale. Act I is in front of the Palace of the Doges, show ing a part of the magnificent facade of that beautiful building. Looking off over the piazzetta toward the library and still further in the distance is seen the Church of Santa Maria della Salute, its white dome beaming in the sunlight. At the left is the quay, with its gondolas and richly colored sails.

Acts II and III show the bridge before Shylock's house. In this scene the artist has depicted the decay and discoloration of the stones and plaster. The hanging gardens, the wealth of sunlight and crumbling walls all combine in a country and all combines in a country and a combine in a country and hanging gardens, the weath of sunfight and crumbing walls all combine in a quaint and pleasing effect. In this act there is also a view of the Dogee' Palace and the Giant's Stairway. Act IV is at Belmont, and for the casket scene the artist has provided a palace Council Chamber, a reproduction of one of the ducal courts, with the great frescoes of Tintoretti filling the panels of walls and ceiling. Act VI is again at Bel-

The play of "Othello" opens with a moonlit Venetian street, showing Brabantio's house. Act II is in the Senate Chamber, a ducal court with elaborate carvings, frescoes and hangings. Act III is in Cyprus and the fortress at Famagusta. Acts IV and Y show the island home of Othello and Desdemona. It is a Byzantine interior correctly reproduced and admits of superb decoration. The second scene of act V will be a moonlit street, show-ing Iago's house. The final scene will be the bed chamber, with tastefully colored and arranged drapery, set angularly toward the front so that no part of it will be obscured from any part of the audience.

The opening bill of the engagement will be "Othello," on the second night by "The Merchant of followed on the second night by "The Merchant of Venice." The tragedians will be assisted by their own company, which includes a number of well-known actors. On the opening night Mr. Booth will play lago and Mr. Barrett Othello. On Tuesday night Mr. Barrett will play Bassanio in "The Merchant of Venice," and Mr. Booth Shylock. These two plays will be given on alternate nights during the first week. The sale of seats begins at the box office Thursday morning, and the prices will range from 50 cents to $2 50 each, with $20 and $25 for the boxes.

NEWS FROM THE THEATRES.

Interesting and highly colored accounts of quee incidents seem to be "the rage" just now around the theatres which employ special men to do their press work. The latest comes from the Casino. The story is to the effect that on Wednesday evening the manager of a small travelling opera company went to see "The Yeomen of the Guard," and took with him a phone. He had succeeded in recording the entire act with his machine, when the eagle eye of an usher lighted upon him and he was hustled, phonograph and all, into Mr. Aronson's office. The manager explained that he wanted to produce the operetta on the road, and had been compelled to steal the score, as he could not get it otherwise. The libretto he had bought for twenty-five cents. Mr. Aronson was generous and forgave the manager, but took the imprinted foil of the phonograph away from him.

W. J. Gilmore, a Philadelphia manager, and several wealthy men are agitating a project to turn the build-ing in Broadway known as The Old London Street into a new theatre. Nothing definite, however, has yet been decided upon.

The prize of $25, offered by Lew Dockstader for the best title for his new burlesque of "The Yeomen of the Guard," brought a flood of remarkable responses. So far no decision has been made, but the title "De Young Men of de Black Guard, or de Merryman Dismayed " is most favored. The burlesque will be produced next week. W. R. Hayden will manage Stuart Robson next

Joseph Haworth will not go with "Paul Kauvar" after all. Edmund Collier has been substituted in his stead. Ralph Delmore is also out in the cold, by reason of his trying to pull too many wires at once, Harold Hartsell will play the part he was to have played in "The Fugitive."

An English burlesque, called "Monte Cristo, ir.," will introduce the London Galety Company to the patrons of the Standard Theatre November 13.
It is said that the Star Theatre will resume high prices next season and play only the best standard attractions. Special productions on a large scale are also talked of.

also talked of.

Amborg's new German Theatre will probably be ready for opening by November 26. The first attraction will be a comic opera by Zumpe, called "Farinella." The piece has been largely successful in Berlin and Vienna, but has never been given in this country.

Madame Fursch Madi, the dramatic soprano, sailed

Madame Fursch Madl, the dramatic soprano, sailed from Havre for this city last Tuesday on the Saale. She will make a tour of the United States this season in concerts and oratorios, under the management of L. M. Ruben.

Bronson Howard's new military drama for the Boston Museum opens with the firing on Fort Sumter and closes after the war. The entire action of the play, except in the last act, takes place at the front. "The Signal Dispatch" was the last title under consideration for the play. sideration for the play.

WILL THERE BE A VANDERBILT FUNDS

A RUMOR THAT THE FAMILY IS TO ENDOW AN INDUSTRIAL AND MECHANICAL SCHOOL

IN THE SOUTH.

Charleston, Nov. 1 (Special).—George W. Vanderbilt has purchased 1,000 acres of land near Asheville, N. C., on the Swananoa River. The general belief is that the Vanderbilts propose to spend $1,000,000 in endowing an industrial and mechanical school. It is said that William K. Vanderbilt and family will accompany George W. on a visit to this region for two already been secured at one of the hotels for them Civil engineers and landscape gardeners have already been set at work to lay out and improve Mr. Vander bilt's purchase.

Mr. Vanderbilt arrived home from his Southern trip resterday and entertained a party of friends last night at his house in Fifth-ave. When a Tribune reporter called with a view of obtaining further details re-garding the land purchase and the foundation of the institutions referred to in the dispatch, Mr. Vander-bilt said that he had nothing to say on the subject, and would neither deny nor confirm the report.

PICKPOCKETS NEATLY CAPTURED.

Norwich, Conn., Nov. 1 (Special).—Three pick-pockets who had been pilfering in the crowds that gathered to greet Mr. Blaine at New-London, Norwich and Willimantic were arrested at the latter place this afternoon. Among the New-London victims was one man who lost a gold watch and $100 at Willimantic. Another man was relieved of a pocketbook containing shound man was relieved of a pocketbook containing $5000 in money and notes aggregating $2,000. Another was fleeced out of $6,000 by the bunco plan. One of the thieves had six gold watches. Captain Fred Clark, chief of the Willimantic police, disguised himself in a pair of overalls, a jumper jacket and slouch hat, and thus mingling in the crowd was able to apprehend the thieves.

WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY. Boston, Nov. 1.-The seventh annual convention of the Women's Home Missionary Society was opened parts of the country. Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes presided. An address of welcome in behalf of the churches of Boston was made by the Rev. W. N. Broadbeck, of the Tremont Street Church. Mrs. Hayes read her annual address. She spoke of the importance of home missions, summarized the work of the society, and expressed the belief that the out-look was encouraging.

AN ANSWER TO HER PRAYER.

AN ANSWER TO HER PRAYER.

From The Boston Transcript.

A woman in West Tennessee went home from church one Sunday, impressed by a moving appeal which her pastor had made in behalf of a minister's widow recently left in want with six children. What could she give to releve this case of suffering? She was herself a widow and poor. She thought intensely over the matter, and that hight she prayed over it, but no way of raising the money occurred to her. The next morning when she went out to sweep off her doorstep she noticed that the earth one side had been freshly thrown up, and something glittering lay in the dirt. It was a $5 gold piece. Lucing the night a rat had taken it into his head to dig a hole under the step, and one result of his laber was the resurrection of that coin. The woman knew that during the war her husband had buried his savings, all in gold coins, under those stops; but he had dug up the money after the war was over, and evidently supposed he had recovered the whole. It seemed that he was mistaken. And now his widow was not slow to follow the hint given her by the burrowing rat. She removed the steps, and after a thorough search succeeded in flanding $20. Regarding this money as a direct gift from Heaven, she sent it all to the suffering family.

EXCUSABLE DELAY IN THE MAILS. From The Binghamton Republican.

Young Author—Do you know that our mail service is in a most demoralized condition? It seems to take a letter an age to reach its destination.
Old Friend—Have you been troubled with it! Young Author—I should say I had. I sent a poem to a New York paper more than four months ago and it hasn't been printed yet.

WOMEN AGAINST FREE TRADE.

A NOVEL PARADE OF FEMININE WORKERS. THEY PROTEST AGAINST CLEVELAND'S BRITISH

POLICY-HIS BROKEN PLEDGES TO THEM. The attention of passers-by in Broadway and Fifthave, yesterday was attracted by the novel sight of a woman's parade. Twenty carriages filled with neatly attired, intelligent-looking working girls, headed by a band, paraded from Fourteenth-st. to the Battery. and then back to Thirty-third-st. The mottoes and sentiments carried in the carriages explained sufficiently the purpose of this movement. There were such sentiments as these: "The Soldiers' Widows Starved Out. The wage-women must go, says the Administration;" "The Woman's League asks for Protection e our American Industries. Protect our wage-women, and The Woman's National Industrial League demands Protection for American Women as Bread Win-

The parade was a repreach to Cleveland's American free-trade policy. It was an appeal to the workingmen to protect industrious women who are willing to work for their living from foreign pauper Those who were in the carriages were treated with the greatest respect on all sides. Men stopped until the carriages had passed, nodding their heads in approval, while many respectfully tipped their hats to women who were proud to call themselves prosperous wage-earners under the Protective system. Mrs. Charlotte Smith, president of the Woman's National Industrial League, told a Tribune reporter after the parade yesterday that no general dem stration had been planned, as many of the workinggirls could not get away from their work during the day. "We are not connected with any Woman's Rights party, or anything of the kind," she said.

We only ask to be allowed to earn an honest living, and we know that this would not be possible wer

Mr. Cleveland's free trade theories to be carried out.

The working women would be the first to feel the evil effects of hard times. Therefore, we appeal to our co-workers who are voters to protect their sisters and daughters. "The present Administration has rduced the wages of women employed in the Departments at Washington and has discharged others because we have raised our voices against free trade. Mr. Cleveland promised to look after working women's interests, but, of course, he has broken his pledges. I have always this campaign and have worked for its interest, but I cannot see our working girls degraded by free trade without raising my voice against such a calamity. We ask for protection both for our industries and our labor. Therefore, we carried to-day no English and no Chinese flags, though we did carry almost all others. been in sympathy with the Democratic party before

OBITUARY.

NAPOLEON L. THIEBLIN.

N. L. Thieblin, famous as "Rigolo" of "The Sun, died early yesterday morning at his home, No. 21 West Eighteenth-st. He had been sick for nearly a year, and for the past two months hope of his recovery had been abandoned. The funeral services will be held at the house at 10 o'clock to-morrow, and the burial will be at the Cypress Hills Cemetery. The Press Club, of which he was a member, will have entire charge of the arrangements. A special meeting of the club to take action on his death will be held at 3 p. m. to-day.

Mr. Thieblin was born in St. Petersburg on June 6, 1834. He belonged to an old Royalist family which was driven from France and settled in Bologna, Italy. His father studied architecture there, and to accept the position of court architect removed to St. Peters-burg, where the son was born. He was educated at the Academy of Artillery, by which he was graduated as a sub-lieutenant in 1853. In the next year he saw active service on the Danube and when only twenty years old he commanded forty pieces of artillery is the siege of Schastopol. He was decorated for gallant services, but he withdrew from the army in 1857, and soon afterward settled in London, where he was put in charge of the foreign department of "The Pall Mall Gazette." He was a frequent contributor in the meanwhile to "Macmillan's Magazine," "London Society," "The British Quarterly Review," and other periodicals. He also translated into Russian the works of Macaulay, Buckle, Darwin and other English authors. When the Franco-Prussian war broke out he went with the French army as the special correspondent of "The Pail Mall Gazette." he became the Paris correspondent of "The New-York Herald," and in this capacity was sent to join the Herald," and in this capacity was sent to form the close of the war he attempted to make a tour of the world, but lived in New-York after he reached it in April, 1874. Four years later he began the sketches and financial articles signed "Rigolo," by which he was best known in this city. They were discontinued about a year and a half ago.

J. SEWARD WILLS.

J. Seward Wills, who died at his home near Stanhope, N. J., on Wednesday night, was one of the active and influential Republicans in the township of Mount Morris. His death is supposed to be due to heart disease, although he had been a partial invalid for some time. He was about fifty years old, and leaves a wife, three sons and three daughters. He was one of the largest landowners in Mount Olive Township, a stockholder and director in the Sussex Bank, at Newton, and had a large shoe factory at over. He was an ex-member of Assembly, and elected a few years ago received a large number emogratic votes.

COLONEL JAMES DUFFY. Lancaster, Penn., Nov. 1.—James Duffy, of Marietta. well known as a leading member of the Farmers' Club. and one of the most prominent farmers of this county.

OBITUARY NOTES. Rome, Nov. 1.—Cardinal Ignace Masotti is dead. He was born in Forli in 1817, and was created a Cardinal on Nov. 10, 1884.

London, Nov. 1.-Spencer Bulkely Wynn, third Baron Newborough, is dead, age eighty-five. He was a Welsh nobleman living in Carnarvonshire, and is succeeded by William Charles-Wynn, age fifteen, his oldest grandson, whose father died ten years ago.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A MERCHANT.

DYING IN THE READING-ROOM OF THE ASHLAND

HOUSE-A SKETCH OF HIS LIFE. Thomas W. Bartram, of the firm of Bartram Brothers, No. 62 Fearl-st., died suddenly yesterday at the Ashland House, where he lived. He came down stairs to the office at about 8 o'clock and, as had been his custom for some time, took his morning papers and going into the reading room adjoining the office sat down to read in his accustomed place in the front corner of the room before a window facing Fourth-ave. About fifteen minutes later Dr. Shaw, a boarder at the Ashland House, came down Fourthave., and as he passed the reading room looked through the window where he saw Mr. Bartram sitting with his spectacles upon his nose, his paper open before him, and his head slightly thrown back, with his eyes closed. He thought he appeared strangely pale, and hurrying into the office told the clerk that a man in the reading room was either sick or dead. Mr. Brockway, proprietor of the hetel, was at once sur noned and went into the reading room. He found Mr. Bartram dead in his chair. There were a num ber of men in the room at the time, reading and writing, but death had come so quietly that no one mistrusted it until Mr. Brockway came in. A corone was immediately summoned, the body removed to an undertaker's, and the dead man's brother informed. An inquest was held yesterday afternoon, and it was discovered that death was due to fatty degeneration

Mr. Bartram was fifty years old, and a native of Bridgeport, Connecticut. The firm of Eartram Brothers, of which he was a member, is engaged in the South American trade. He was a member of the Maritime and Produce Exchanges. For the last eight years he has made the Ashland House his winter home, living at Eddgeport in sammer, and going nearly every year to South America. He was unmarried. His body will be removed to Bridgeport this morning for burial.

THE CAMPAIGN IN BUGLEVILLE.

From The Minneapolis Journal.

From The Minneapolis Journal.

"The Squealer" announces that it is going to enlarge. Politics brings prosperity at the expense of the candidate.—(Swiper.

The Motic grubber of "The Squealer" insimuates that we tamper with his mail in our official capacity as postmaster. As his mail consists principally of duns, he ought to feel grateful. But he lies and we fling it in his tech.—(Swiper.

"The Swiper" throws a sop to the Prohibitionists his week in the hope of drawing Prohibition votes from the Republican ranks. If anybody is bamboozled by the artful wiles of the old soaker we shall be onto him. We understand that the editor of "The Swiper" has a keg of cider in his cellar. Prohibitionists, what do you think of that!—(Squealer.

Beware of fraud! We are in possession of the fact that the Democrate intend to carry the election by foul means if they can, and by fair means if they must. It behoves every true patriot to be on guard and see that he votes the right ticket.—(Squealer.

We learn that a Pinkerion detective is domiciled in our little village and that he proposes to stay until after election. Are we to be shot down in cold blood by the hirelings of the Republican party! We have stated the facts to the President, and have no doubt that he will protect us and the post office.—(Swiper.

corruption fund, but justice will prevail and we shall get back the post office - Squealer

SELECTIONS FROM THE MAIL. A CAUTION TO LETTER-WRITERS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Is it not enough that the Post Office Department makes the public suffer by an irregular and slow mail service? This Department has now attacked the sense of taste of every one who has occasion to apply the tongue to the flap of its latest edition of envelopes The taste is not soon forgotten. It is horrible. I quote from "The Scientific American":

In consequence of the decline in the supply of gum to abandon its use of this excellent material as a sealer for letter envelopes. In lieu of gum arabic a filthy and foul-tasting compound has been substituted, which is a disgrace to the Department and a nuisance to all who have occasion to seal a Government envelope who have occasion to seal a Government envelop
Any one who closes a letter in the ordinary mannfinds the lips solied and a villanous taste left in timouth. It is to be hoped the ingenuity of chemis will be able to purify the substances now used, or pr duce a new gum that shall be free from the objection mentioned. Such an invention or discovery ought prove highly profitable to its author, for it is great needed by the public. Yours respectfully,
Mt. Varnon N. V. Oct. 12, 1888.
M. Y. B.

Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Oct. 13, 1888. POSTMASTERS AS CENSORS OF MAIL MATTER.

To the Editor of The Tribune.
Sir: Winter before last, while in Jacksonville Fla., it was impossible for me to get my copies of The Tribune regularly. Once none reached me for six days and so I went to see the superintendent there. He promised to fix matters and the next day my seven nes reached me all in a lump, and for three days thereafter all went well. After that there was none again for five days. Then I got a little excited and brushing aside the superintendent went straight to the postmaster and asked him if it was necessary me to write to Washington to make my complaint. He seemed to relish my idea of doing so with anything He seemed to relish my idea of doing so with anythic but pleasure and assured me there would be further cause for complaint. The next day all repapers reached me again in a heap, and from the until I went away I had little trouble. To reflictals there do not like the Republicanism of Tribune and do not wish to encourage its distribution. I intended to write you about this at the time, he was afraid it might interfere with the receipt of reletiers there. We must succeed in "turning it reaseals out," and then we will have less all around complain of.

Excelsive Oct. 24, 1883. mplain of. Brooklyn, Oct. 24, 1888.

MARKING IT "PRIVATE" NO DEFENCE. To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: The extremely mild manner in which Se the following criticism. This letter could only as private have accomplished the intended ruin of the Republican party and the country, for, with the seal of privacy broken to the public, it could but become boomerang to the Democratic-Cleveland-English party. The British Minister's mark of "private" was the drot of deadly poison that he placed upon the Murchison dagger, which was designed to stab and destroy the Republican and protective party of this country for the benefit of England. How can the Minister, Secretary Bayard, or any fair-minded person make excuses for this letter by reason of its being marked private," when the privacy, had it been kept, would have been the damning part?

Away with all nonsensical talk about not holding people responsible for private letters when they are Who ever heard of conspirators writing any other than private letters! You might as well any other than private letters: 100 might as we have that a highwayman who kills and robs you privately should not if found out be punished, as to say that Lord Sackville should not be punished after having been detected in a conspiracy against the Government and industries of the United States.

WATSON MATTHEWS.

Florence House, New-York, Oct. 27, 180

GENERAL LOGAN'S SAGACIOUS PROPHECY.

To the Editor of The Tribune I am forcibly impressed with the sagacity leneral Logan, as I remember his prophecy for 1888. He was the first to predict not long after the defeat in 1884 a victory for the Republicans this year. I have contended all through this campaign that our young first time voters alone would turn the scale our favor, especially with such candidates as we now have. See how easily General Logan's claim appears to be true. What more natural that that the return of the soldiers, fathers and sons, from the war, who left wives and sweethearts at home, should be followed by a great number of boys born, who are to come of age in time to vote for the first time in 1888? Will any one doubt whom these boys will vote for?

ote for? Brooklyn, Oct. 15, 1888.

GIVING AN AUTHOR'S MATINEE.

The first authors' matinee of this season was given yesterday at the Madison Square Theatre. The play was Clinton Stuart's comedy "Beauty Abroad." satirizes the foolish conduct of American women of original. Miss Isabelle Evesson played the heroine Alma Ashley; while the character of Mrs. Sallie Budd Cronise, the comedy part of it, was assumed by Miss Lilia Vane. Miss Linda Dietz was specially engaged to represent Paola Almagia, a dramatic character. The cast also included Miss Mary Shaw, Mrs. Barker, Miss Nina Boucleault, Walden Ramsay and Cyril DICKINSON STUDENTS DEENCHED BY FIREMEN. Carlisle, Penn., Nov. 1 (Special).—The students of Dickinson College built a large bonfire at midnight ast night, making use of the college fence as material. When the fire department was called into service the students laughed. This so enraged the firemen that hey turned the hose on the collegians and Professor In the excitement stones were thrown from both sides and a number of persons were seriously injured. The question as to who is to blame in the matter has been one of considerable discussion to-day. Mayor Cornman ordered the arrest of all the persons concerned in the disturbance.

THE FRENCH MISSIONS CONVENTION.

A convention in the interest of the French Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Churca Union was held last night in the Central Church, Fourteenth-st. and Seventh-ave., under the presidency of Dr. C. C. McCabe. Ad-dresses were delivered by the Rev. L. N. Beaudry, superintendent of French Missions in the Troy, New-Hamp-shire and New-England conferences; the Rev. Thomas A. Dorion, pastor of the French Church in Ware, Mass., and the Rev. Henry E. Benon, superintendent of French missions in New-England Southern Conference.

The police captains have agreed to take up a per-onal collection for the widow of Policeman Brennan. It a expected that from $2,000 to $3,000 will be collected

In this way. Superintendent Murray received the following sums yesterday for the fund. Clarence McKim, No. 52 Broadway, $100; Robert Hughes, Washington, D. C., $100; Anonymous. $100; Adam Keyser, No. 838 Eagleave., $5; A. T., $5; J. R., Fifty-seventh-st., $1. MAKING A SCHOONER OF THE MATFLOWER.

The Boston Advertiser.

The stoop Mayflower is expected at Boston in a few days, and will be hauled up at Lawley's basin for the winter. It is very probable that the sloop will be schooner rigged during the winter, thus leaving the Puritan and Volunteer as the only big sloops.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

GOVERNMENT INDICATIONS FOR 24 HOURS.

For Eastern New-York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New-Jersey Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, warmer and

For the Carolinas, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee and the oulf States, fair : stationary temperature For Arkansas, fair, followed by light rains in the western ortion : cooler. For Western New-York and Western Pennsylvania, fair, followed by light showers on the lakes; stationary tempera For Oh o and Indiana, fair in the southern portions, light showers in the northern portions; stationary temperat lowed by colder weather. For Illinois and Missonri, light showers ; slightly colder.

For Iowa and Kansas, light rains, except in the extreme For Lower Michigan, light rains; stationary temper ollowed by colder weather on Pristay night. For Upper Michigan, light rains; cooler in the eastern por ion, stationary temperature in the western.

For Wisconsin, light rains; colder.

For Minnesota, light rains; colder in the extreme southeast ion ; slowly rising temperature in the remaining portions.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

TM HOURS: Morning. Night. In the diagram a continuous line shows the barometer fluctuations yesterday, as observed at the United States Signal Service station at this city. The dashes indicate temperature noted at Hudnut's pharmacy, 218 Broadway.

TRIBUNE OFFICE, Nov. 2.-1 a. m.-Clear weather pre-and 70°, the average (60°) being 9 % higher than on Wednes In and near this city to-day there will probably be

HEWITT HAD A HEADACHE.

THIS EXPLAINS HIS BAD TEMPER.

ADDRESSING SOME OF HIS CITIZENS IN CHICK ERING HALL-ABUSE FOR THOSE WHO FAIL TO SUPPORT HIM.

The theory, tenaclously adhered to, that there is a spontaneous and uncontrollable demand from the respectability of New-York City for the re-election of Mayor Hewitt, received a rude and cruel shock last evening. The long advertised Citizens' Mass Meeting to indorse and ratify Mr. Hewitt's nomination was held at Chickering Hall, but in point of numbers it could not be called a success. When James A. sevelt took the chair at 8:30 p. m. there were many vacant chairs. The audience was composed largely of women, and no part of the house was at any time crowded. Of the 135 vice-presidents and twenty-five secretaries on the list read in a very thin room by Conrad N. Jordan, not one-fourth were present. The best known men upon the platform, a large portion of which was unoccupied, although abundant preparation had been made to accommodate a great array of eminent citizens, were the heads of Mr. Hewitt's department. Like the candidate's administration, it was respectable as far as outward appearances go, but by no means strong.

James C. Carter and Dr. Howard Crosby made speeches before Mr. Hewitt's arrival, and both denounced Sheriff Grant and Tammany Hall, and paid hardsome tributes to Colonel Erhardt's ability and genuine honesty of character. came upon the stage the applause with which he was received made up somewhat for he gaps in the main body of the hall. Mr. Hewitt appeared much agitated from the beginning of the speech.
"I am not here to-night," he said, said. as a candidate to ask for your votes, although being a candidate I expect to get them, and I intend to be elected. (Cheers.) Good government, the Mayor said, was in great danger. Tammany Hall exists for one purpose only, the spoils of office and the profits of contracts. It was making its last desperate effort to get possession of the city treasury. It had a blind following of 40,000 hungry voters, anxious to fasten their fangs upon the vitals of the city. Mr. Hewith offered the only hope of escape. Colonel Erhardt was a good man but he had no chance. The only way out of the danger was to vote for Hewitt. the changes on "this condition which confronts us," several times, growing pathetic in his appeals.

and speeches of two years ago, when he was nominated by that organization, which were lavish in his praises and said; "That's the kind of hairpin I am." (Laugh ter and cheers.) During the interval of four or five days before he accepted the nomination of 1886 he said he was fairly deluged with letters from Republicans asking him to accept, and he sorrowfully wiped his eyes as he told how they afterward "went back on him" and nominated Theodore Roosevelt. This action, he said, lrove him to promise the offices to the Democrats He was obliged to keep that pledge. Now, the Union League Club had made that fact the ground of a charge Theodore Roosevelt and Hooper C. Van Vorst for opposing him He violated no confidence, he said, telling how they had come to the Mayor's office and commended his administration. If Erhardt could be elected, he would be glad of it. Then in broken accents, he said: "If I am elected I will try to do as better." After attacking what he called the partisanship of the Rev. Dr. Atmitage, he said: "So far as ship of the Rev. Dr. Atmitage, he said: "So far as Mr. Erhardt is concerned, I have spoken most condially of his high character and conscientious fidelity to duty, but he represents a political machine."

Mr. Hewitt then eulogized General Newton, Corporation Counsel Beckman and Mr. Bayles, of the Health Department, and said that if elected he would reappoint them all. He said that the Police Department could not squander the city's money, but he made a covert attack upon the Republican Police Commissioners, leaving the inference that any wrong doing in that department was chargeable to them. He would appoint one Republican on that beard when the two vacancies occurred, but was undecided about the other appointment. In closing he depated what a model city government this would be if he could have his way and tearfully implored Republicans to leave their candidate and support him.

TRISHMEN NERVED FOR THE FIGHT. FOURTEEN JUBILANT MEETINGS IN AS MANY PARTS OF THE CITY-READY FOR THE

The Irish-Americans who are going to vote for Harrison and Morton did good work last evening. No less than fourteen meetings were held in various parts of the city under the auspices of the Irish-American Anti-Cleveland and Protective League and the Irish-American Anti-Free-Trade League. P. H. Spellman, who has organized and kept running a lourishing club during the last ten weeks at No. 213 East Twenty-third-st., had a grand rally there last evening. John C. Graham, an influential Irish-American, who lives in the XXIId Assembly District, presided at a meeting of the Yorkville Protective League at No. 286 East Eighty-sixth-st., which was well at tended. He says that a large Democratic vote is certain to be polled in that section for the Republican National ticket. The number of voters who attended the meeting at No. 273 Spring-st., a branch of the Irish-American Anti-Cleveland and Protective League, shows that the workingmen in that quarter of the city are up and doing. Assembly District branch of the Irish-American Anti-Free-Trade League, and has close upon 400 names en rolled, presided over an enthusiastic meeting at No. 341 West Forty-seventh-st. P. J. O'sullivan, who has been doing good work in the IVth Assembly District, has in no way slackened his efforts in behalf of protection, as was shown by the successful meeting over which he presided at No. 264 East Broadway, Equally encouraging accounts will represent what was done in the several meetings held in the other Assembly districts, at all of which the determination was expressed to close up the ranks and prepare for one great final effort at the ballot-box on Tuesday. rolled, presided over an enthusiastic meeting at No.

THESE TRUSTS MUST BE ABOLISHED.

THESE TRUSTS MUST BB ABOLISHED.

From The Albany Express.

"Daniel," said Grover, reflectively, to his fidus Achates the other evening, as he sar pensively gazing into the cold, still features of a silver dollar, "are we coming any of these things now with 'In God We Trust' on them?"

"I believe we are, sire."

"Well, it's got to be stopped; this Administration can't afford to lay itself open to the suspicion of favoring trusts. It won't do at all, Daniel."

"Your commands shall be obeyed, sire."

"And Daniel, while I think of it, take down that motto, 'Public Office is a Public Trust,' that hangs over the hat-rack in the hall. All such things look bad, and we can't afford to run any risk."

TO WIND A "WATERBURY." From The Albany Express.

There is a man in this city who has solved the problem of winding his Waterbury watch without wasting half his time in the operation. He is employed in a machine shep. When the time arrives for the watch to be wound, he simply holds the knob of the stem against one of the belts for a moment, and the thing is done.

A LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER'S LIFE. The first popular account of the duties, dangers and rewards of railread engineers appears in Scribner's for November in the article on "The Every Day Life of Railread Men." 20 stirring illustrations by A. B. Frost.

Seal and Fur Garments in New Designs. Fashion and Quality. A. Jackel, Manufacturing Furrier, 11 East 19th-st. The Sacking of Sackville be followed by the events so graphically described may be followed by the events so graphically described by SAM BANTON in the BATTLE OF THE SWASH and THE CAPTURE OF CANADA.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria When she became Miss, she clung to Castor When she had Children, she gave them Cast MARRIED.

CISCO-SMITH-GILL-On Monday, October 29, 1888, at the residence of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Charles Treat, Emma A., daughter of Andrew W. Gill to Lewis C. Cisco-Smith. CRANE-BALLARD-Pt Newark, N. J., Oct. 31, at the real dence of the bride, 1,099 Broad-st., Wm. Anderson Crane, of East Orange, N. J., to Lizzie P. Hopping, daughter of Mrs. Geo. M. Ballard.

ARLEY-TOWNSEND-On Wednesday, October 31, at the rendence of the bride's parents, New York, by the Rev. Ed-ward L. Clark, Church of the Purians, Lizzie, daughter of M: Chus H. Townsend, to George J. Harley, of San Francisco.

HYATT-BURTENSHAW-On Wednesday evening, October 31, 1888, at the residence of the bride's parents, Brooklyn, by the Rev. Reese F. Alsop, Herbert Ogden Hyatt to kittle, daughter of William Burtenshaw.

HUNTER-JACKSON-On Thursday, November 1, 1888, at the residence of the bride's parents, 825 Madison-ave, by the Rev. A. E. Kittredge, D. D., Robert J. Hunter, of Brooklyn, to Marianna, daughter of Wm. H. Jackson.

Brooklyn, to Marianna, daughter of Wm. H. Jacksen, STEINS-HALSEY-October 31, 1888, by the Rev. Richard G. Greene, Caroline, daughter of Jonathan o. and Virginia B. Halsey, all of Fast Orange, N. J. and Gustave C., son of Fred. Wm. and Emma A. Steins, of Brooklyn, N. Y. VALLOIN-STEBBINS-On Thursday, November 1, 1888, by the Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, D. D., assisted by the Rev. E. W. Hitchcest, D. D., Lucien Paul Vallois, of Paris, France, to Bhuiche Phelps, daughter of James H. Stebbins, WEIR-MACDONALD-On Thursday evening, November 1, 1888, at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, by the Rev. D. Parker Morgan, James Royd Weir, Jr., to Rosamond Floyd Macdonald, daughter of Mr. Robt. Macdonald, both of this city.

COOKE—On Thursday, November 1, at the residence of her son, Rev. W. H. Cooke, at Bay Shore, L. I., Caroline Eliza, widow of the late Bohert L. Cooke, of this city. Puneral at St. John's Chapel, Varick st., Saturday, at 10:30 a. in. interment at Bloomfield, N. J., on arrival of 11:30 train from New-York.

DIED.

Interment at Biominian, 3-7, on a 1-7, on a 1-

GALE—At No. 12 Charles St., this city, on Wednesday, October 31, in her 16th year, Bertha Rolston Gale, only daughter of Mrs. Fred. J. Brown, and granddaughter of the late John H. Rolston.

H. Rolston.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the funeral from Trinity (Episcopal) Church, Elizabeth, N. J., en Saturday,
November S, at 1 octock,
Trains leave Certaintt, Debrosses and Liberry st. ferries ab

Orange Co., N. Y., papers please copy.

GERRISH—In this city, November 1, 1888, at the residence of her son in law, W. H. Dennis, Hannah C. Gerrish, widow of W. S. Gerrish.

Funeral private.

MERRILL—Suddenly, of apoplexy, Wednesday, October 31,
Benjamin B. Merrill, aged 73.

Funeral services at his late residence, 416 West 19th st., Friday, 8 p. m.
Chicago papers please copy.

PURDY—At Harlem, October 31, 1888, Maragrot Purdy, aged 75 years.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services on Saturday evening, from her late residence, 323 East 123d-st, at 8 o'clock.
Interment at White Plains, N. Y.
Carriages awaiting arrival of train leaving New-York 10:45 o'clock Sunday.
Friends and relatives invited.
RANDEL—Suddenly, William McDonald, age 2 years and 6 months.

months.
Funeral this Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, from residence of his parents, 253 West 13th-st.

SCHU VLER-On Wednesday, October 31, 1888, at 6 a. m., of diphtheria, Lansing Roach, aged 2 years and 7 months, only child of Charles E. and Sara R. Schuyler. Funeral private, from residence, 216 West End-ave., Friday, November 2, at 11 a. m. November 2, at 11 a.m.

TORRY—On Wednesday, October 31, William J., son of Jane S. and the late Wm. B. Torry.
Funeral from the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, on Saturday, November 3, at 20-cicok.

WILSON—On Wednesday, October 31, 1888, Mrs. Mary W., Wilson, at her late residence, 1,298 Park.ave., in the 36th year of her age.

Funeral private.

Special Notices.

Robert Somerville, Auctioneer. BY ORTGIES & CO. FIFTH AVENUE ART GALLERIES. 366 5TH-AVE. AND 34TH-ST. NOW ON FREE EXHIBITION, PAINTINGS BY GEORGE HENRY HALL, N. A.

Figures, fruit, flowers and landscapes.

To be sold at auction without reserve

THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 8, at So'clock. Hankinson's Steam Carpet Cleaning Works, ast 27th-st E stablished 1861. Cartage free on this Island outh of 160th st. Relaying a speci

"Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for Children Teething" softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays all pain, cures wind colic and diarrhoea. 25 cents a bottle.

Contents of THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE FOR TO-DAY.

First Page—Topics of the Day—Sackville Told to Go. Second Page—Lord Sackville Here Yet. Third Page—Insulting America—Captain O'Saca Tes-Third Page—Insulting America—Captain O'Saca Testifies.
Fourth Page—New Publications: The Tinker of Eistow.
Fifth Page—For the Family Circle—Our Young Folks.
Sixth Page—An Envoy Extraordinary—Personal—The Talk of the Day.
Seventh Page—Republicans in Wall Street—Warnes
Miller in Troy—Political News.
Eighth Page—Editorials.
Ninth Page—Editorials.
Ninth Page—Editorials.
Tendrith Page—Editorials.
Tredith Page—His Natura Life.
Thirteenth Page—His Natura Life.
Thirteenth Page—The Emperor at Hamburg—Foreign and Miscellaneous News.
Fourteenth Page—The Volunteers in Bine.
Fitzeenth Page—Miscellaneous News—Markets—
Sixteenth Page—Miscellaneous News—Markets—
Sixteenth Page—Markets—Advertisements.
Conless in windpurer ready for mailting can be had to

Copies in wrappers ready for mailing can be had to The Tribune Counting Room for 3 cents each.

Post Office Notice.

(Should be read daily by all interested, as changes may or tany time.)
Letters for foreign countries need not be specially addressed for dispatch by any particular atcamer, except when it is desired to send duplicates of banking and commercial document, etters not specially addressed being sent by the fastest vessels valiable.

Fareign means for the work ending November, 9 will close (promply in all cases) at this office as follows:

SATURDAY—At 1 a. m. for France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and Portugal, per steamship La Bretagne, via Havre, 1 a. m. for Great Britain, Ireland, Belgium and Notherlands, per steamship Servia, via Queenstown lietters for Germany, Austria, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Russia and Turkey must be directed "per Servia"); at 1.30 a. m. for Belgium, direct, per steamship Wassland, via Antwerp (letters must be directed "per Waesland"); at 2a. m. for Germany, Austria, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Russia and Turkey, per steamship Wersland, via Antwerp (letters must be directed "per Waesland"); at 2a. m. for Germany, Austria, Sonthampton, must be directed "per Wern"; at 11 a. m. for Colombia, via Curacca, must be directed "per Valencia"); at 11 a. m. for Campeche, Chiapas, Tabasco and Yucatan, per steamship Niagana (letters for other Mexican States must be directed "per Niagana"; at 12 m. for Norway direct, per steamship Stand (letters must be directed "per Island"); at 1 p. m. for St. Dominzo, Cape Hayti and Turks Island, per steamship Sadinaw; at 2 p. m. for Scotland direct, per steamship Devonia, via Glassow (letters must be directed "per Island"); at 2 p. m. for Scotland direct, per steamship Rotter-dam (letters must be directed "per Island"); at 2 p. m. for the Netherlands, via Rotterdam, per steamship Rotter-dam (letters must be directed "per Beland"); at 2 p. m. for Scotland and per steamship Section (letters must be directed "per Belands); at 2 p. m. for Jamalca, per steamship Dorian.

SUNDAY—At Sa. m. for Progreso, per steamship Mexico,

SUNDAY-At Sa. m for Progreso, per steamship Mexico, via Havana detters for other Mexican States must be directed on ner Mexico. 1. "per Mexico").

Mails for the Hawaiian Islands, per steamship Australia (from San Francisco), close here October "31, at 7 p.m. Mails for China and Jajaen, per steamship Arabic (from San Francisco) close here November "1 at 7 p.m. Mails for Australia, New-Zealand, Hawaiian, Fiji and Sanoean Islands, per steamship Alameda (from San Francisco), close here November "11, at 7 p. m. (or on arrival at New-York of steamship Aurania with British mails for Australia. Mails for the Society Islands, per ship Tahita (from San Francisco) close here November "24, at 7 p. m. Mails for Cuba, by rail to Tampa, Fla., and thence by steamer, via Key West, Fla., close "The schedule of cooling of Trans-Pacific ma la is arranged on the presumption of their uninterrupted overland transit to San Francisco. Main's from the East arriving on time at San Francisco on the day of sailing of steamers are dispatched thence the same day. Tost Office, New York, October 26, 1888.

Political Notices.

Grand Reception

RATIFICATION MEETING UNION SQUARE CLUB.

NILSSON HALL,

130-134 EAST 15TH-ST. FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 2, 1888.

orge B. Morris George B. Morris

Has been nominated by the Republican party as its candidate for Alderman from the 11th District. He is a graduate of Har-yard, a practising lawyer in this city and management of the 15 vard, a practising lawyer in this city and the 11th District character. We commend him to the votes of the 11th District: THOM. TILLHOUSE, THOMAS I. JAMES, ACTON ACTON ORD, DINK M. CADWALADER, CORNEL N. BLISS, F. D. TAPPEN, DANKELA LOLLINS, WALTER HOWE, CORNEL N. BLISS, E. D. TAPPEN, DANKELA LOLLINS, WALTER HOWE, A. C. CHENEY, JAS. T.VAN BENSELAER, CHAS. A. PEABODY, JR., HORACE M. RUGGLES, U. P. C. BILLIAGS, JAMES W. HAWES.

Harrison and Morton Club

Harrison and Morton Club OF THE BAR OF NEW-YORK.

All members of the Bar favoring the election of HARRL SON AND MORTON are invited to join in the parade on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3.

This club will form in Pine st., cast of Broadway, at 12:45 p. m., the right restfng on Broadway. The FORMATION will be in companies of twelve files front. Badges can be sebtained on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning at the Headquarters, 175 Broadway (elevator entrance, 2 Cortlandt-st.) JAMES M. VARNUM, Marshal. Procession Banners, with or without oil portraits Ready in one hour if required. NEW-YORK ADV. SIGN CO., 6 Park Place. Republican Nomination FOR CONGRESS, 13TH DISTRICT JAMES OTIS HOYT. Regular Republican Nomination FOR MEMBER OF ASSEMBLY 7TH DISTRICT, FRANCIS V. KING.

THOSE AND RESIDENCE OF ACTURE AND AND ACCOUNTS.

FLOYD CLARKSON, Marshal JOHN J. ELLISON, LOREN CHARLES E. HYATT, FREDERICK T. LOCKE, WILLIAM ATKINSON.

A. L. WEBBER, WILLIAM MCFADDEN.

Comrades can wear the Grand Army hats, but without any insignia except those of their various corps. Line will be formed in Reade st., west of Broadway, right resting on that street.

Vote for Ex-Senator

JAS. DALY

FOR COUNTY CLERK

(Examine His Record.)